

I would like to make a statement of support for XM in their dispute with the NAB. XM's ability to offer Instant Traffic and Weather reports is a great advantage to their listeners and one that should continue to be allowed. It is an invaluable service that XM has the right to offer, and a service that can benefit thousands of drivers around the country.